Wauneitas' Annual Formal At Drill Hall Saturday

Do you have that date yet, squaws? Better hurry up, for there will be much activity in the Drill Hall tepee Saturday night, October 21, when the Wauneitas hold their annual formal dance.

Tickets are now on sale at the Students' Union Building, and cost $2.50 per couple. There will be an extra charge for the reception in the Wauneita Lounge, which will be held from 12 p.m. to 1 a.m. This is the only dance of the year that will be followed by such a reception.

George Wilkie's orchestra will be providing the music for the dancers from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m.

Wauneita executive who have been working hard to make the affair a big success include Pauline Sutermeister, president; Jocelyn Rogers, vice-president; Jean Hymas, secretary-treasurer; June McDougall, Soph rep.; Fran Farley, Junior rep.; Helen Hiller, Ed rep.; Donna Turner, Nursing rep.; and Leora Frizzell, Senior rep.

CORRECTION

A notice appeared in last Tuesday's Gateway stating that the phone number of the Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity was 33616. This is incorrect. The Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity does not have a phone as yet.

As there is illness at 33616 it would be greatly appreciated if students would refrain from dialing the number.

Dr. H. B. Mayo To Address Debating Club

Dr. H. B. Mayo, of the Political Economy Department, will be the guest speaker at the first meeting of the University Debating Society Tuesday, October 24, at 4:30 p.m. in the Mixed Lounge of the SUB.

Speaking on debating in general, Dr. Mayo will be giving information about debates which will be of benefit to all debaters.

Hugill Cup

Plans are now under way to arrange for teams for the Hugill Cup debates, symbol of interfac debating supremacy. All faculties are urged to enter teams, as resolutions will be chosen that will appeal to everyone interested.

A team with no previous debating experience will not be matched against an experienced team, but will be pitted against one with equivalent experience. All those interested, please attend the Tuesday meeting, Oct. 24, or hand in the names of the team, addresses, phone numbers, faculty, year, and previous debating experience to Jack Joyce or Garth Fryatt in the Law Library. Hugill debates are held at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

McGoun Cup

Try-outs for the McGoun Cup will be held the last week in October or the first week in November. All those interested must give their name, address and phone number to Garth Fryatt in the Law Library not later than Friday, October 27.

Contestants for the McGoun Cup includes teams from the four western universities. One team from each university debates in another province and supports the negative side of the resolution, and the other team takes the affirmative at their own university.

Toronto Council Ups NFCUS Fee

University of Toronto Students' Administrative Council unanimously approved to increase the NFCUS fee to twenty cents per capita at its regular meeting Wednesday, Oct. 18.

The motion states that the matter will be effective in one year. Registrations at the university this session is approximately 12,000, which will provide NFCUS coffers nearly $2,400 when the increase is certified by a sufficient number of other NFCUS member universities.

To Scrap Intended Mixer Parties

The plan for regular open house mixer parties on Sunday afternoon has been withdrawn, A. J. Cook, director of Student Advisory Services, announced recently.

"The action is taken regretfully, but difficulties in making proper arrangements at this time has made the cancellation necessary," Dr. Cook said.

Intercollegiate golf and tennis meet will be run off on Saturday and Sunday as athletes from U of S meet local sportsmen and women.

Twelve Saskatchewanites will make up the wheatland delegation which will play a like number of Albertans in both golf and tennis events.

Tennis and golf prospects are bright for the locals in comparison with other years. Male racquet wielders on the Green and Gold squad will be Frank Oliver, Edmonton Junior Men's champ, Don McIntosh and Sterling Haynes. Co-ed threesome will be made up of outstanding net artists Nancy Collinge and Evelyn Linke, along with Flora Morrison.

Divot Diggers on the Alberta aggregation will be Jim Beatty and Earl Lomas for the men and Betty Ann Loveseth, Fran Farley and Marg Robinson for the fairer sex. Beatty and Lomas were among the eight qualifiers in the intramural tournament last week, and won the play-off on Wednesday. The girls, in the order listed were the winners of their intramural tournament also held over the weekend.

All tennis matches will be played Saturday afternoon at the Varsity courts, with golf slated for the Mayfair course near the campus on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Last minute snowfall or inclement weather may force moving of the tennis indoors to the Varsity rink. Golf will be played unless it is completely impossible to stage it.

Students Fall Before Professors On Quiz Show

Remember, Thursday is Varsity Night on CKUA. For program schedule, see last Tuesday's Gateway. Features of Varsity Night include the entertaining quiz show "Champs—or Chumps?", varsity musical talent, variety show, etc., plus the University Night edition of Command Performance.

Incidentally, last week's winners, the "Chaps" were the professors, represented by President Stewart, Prof. M. H. Long, and Dr. H. B. Mayo, who soundly trounced the three-man team of students. Be sure to tune in Thursday at 9:00 to hear the Champs defend their title. To get in on our listeners prize, send a postcard with your name and address to Champs—or Chumps?, Students' Union, University of Alberta, Edmonton.

If you'd like a request played on Command Performance, complete the accompanying request blank, put it in an envelope and mail it to Command Performance, CKUA Edmonton. Please mark your envelope plainly "Varsity Night".

CORRESPONDENCE

October 19, 1950.

Editor, The Gateway,
University of Alberta.
Dear Sir:

Allow me to use your columns to pass along some information which may be of interest to some of the men on the campus.

The Canadian Institute of International Affairs and the Canadian Club (Men's Branch) are both eager to have university students join their organization. With this end in view they are offering students an associate membership.

The Canadian Institute of International Affairs brings outstanding speakers on world affairs to the city. The meetings are almost invariably held in the evenings, about once a month, in the Athabasca Lounge. An associate membership will probably cost one dollar ($1.00), certainly not more than that. The constitution of the CIAA restricts membership to Canadian citizens and British subjects.

The Canadian Club invites speakers to luncheon meetings at the Macdonald Hotel, also at intervals of approximately one month. The associate membership for students will be about one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50), and each member pays for his own meal. Meetings start at 12:15 p.m., but the secretary informs me that he does not believe there would be any objection if students with lectures at that time came a little later—only to hear the speaker.

Any students who are interested in joining either of these organizations should contact any member of the International Relations Club executive, or phone our secretary, Margaret Katz, at 84057.

Yours sincerely,
J. P. BRUMLIK,
President, International Relations Club.

Before The Ball

Plenty of hard work goes into making any dance a success, and these Wauneitas are doing their share to make the organization's formal Saturday night at the Drill Hall no exception to the usual fine affair. Left to right: Diane

Budget Meeting

On this page will be found the Students' Union and University Athletic Board Budgets for the 1950-51 session. All students are urged to study them carefully and to attend the budget meeting Friday, Oct. 28, at 11:30 a.m. in Convocation Hall. Lectures scheduled for 11:30 Friday have been cancelled.

The background of this year's Students' Union Budget is of interest to all. Registration having dropped to 2,900 it was found, when all individual organization budgets were submitted, that the Union was left with a budgeted surplus of only about $900.00. This was thought to be inadequate, and it was decided that, for sound business practice, there should be a budgeted surplus of about $2,000.00. Students' Council, meeting last Friday, scrutinized each item on the budget carefully, and after a thorough discussion and canvas of all the possibilities the budgeted surplus was increased to over $1,800.00.

The scarcity of money also affected the UAB budget, and it too has been pared to the bone.

The members of the Students' Council and the UAB have put in a great deal of time and effort in the preparation of these budgets. They deserve the support of the entire student body. It is to be hoped that the budget meeting will not, as has been the case in the past, have to be cancelled because there is no quorum present. Without an approved budget, Student government is paralyzed and the work of student officials in preparing the budget has gone for naught.

Remember: Friday, Oct. 28, 11:30 a.m., Convocation Hall.

Be there!

RADIO BRIEFS

Students are reminded that Thursday is their night on CKUA's Command Performance, the popular request show. Don't miss the popular quiz show, "Champs—or Chumps?" Thursday at 9:00 on CKUA. Last week's champs, the professors, will be back to defend their laurels against a panel of students, out to gain revenge for their trouncing last week. Program likely will be recorded in the main studios of CKUA at 3:30 Thursday. Anyone wishing to watch may do so.

University Of Saskatchewan Takes Fall Sports Week-End

It happened again!

Over the week-end, University of Saskatchewan athletes once more won the fall sports week-end, walking off with the honors in both tennis and golf.

Playing at the Varsity courts, local racquet-wielders made it close before bowing to the wheatlanders four matches to three. Down at the Mayfair course, the golfers were also making a close fight of it, as the men's matches were decided by only one stroke. Saskatchewan's women links artists, however, enjoyed a comfortable edge over the U of A coeds.

In tennis, the result wasn't determined until the final match of the day. Up to that time, Alberta had won two women's singles matches and one women's doubles set-to, with Saskatchewan sweeping the same events in men's play. The final match pitted the U of S mixed doubles team against the locals, with the easterners winning out 6-3, 3-6, 6-4. Saskatchewan mixed team was Tom Jackson and Pat Lawson, while the Albertans opposing them were Nancy Collinge and Don MacIntosh.

In the golf events, Saskatchewan coeds held a 32 stroke margin over the Albertans, while the men edged the Green and Gold representatives by one stroke. Actually, this event was to have been decided on a match play basis, but the squads were tied at two matches apiece at the completion of play. Final match, between Jim Beatty (Alta.) and Doug McBride (Sask.) went two extra holes before Beatty won.

It was decided by officials in charge that the winner would be determined on a medal play basis, due to the match tie. However, the two extra holes of the final match were not counted, and the scores were determined from the 36-hole results. This gave Saskatchewan a one-stroke edge.

There was no track and field competition this year. Win for Saskatchewan was a repeat of last year, when they swept all competitions. Complete results and details of all matches will appear in Friday's Gateway.

DU's High Scorers With 27 At Intramural Track Meet

Eighty contestants turned out to participate in the Men's Intramural Track Meet on Saturday. The DU frat captured high scoring honors with 27 points. Athabasca held down the second spot with 21 while the Engineers and Kappa Sigs tied for third place with 16 points each.

Nick Romalo, a newcomer to U of A track circles, was high point-getter with firsts in all three events which he entered. Romalo came first in the 100 yard dash with an 11:2 second effort. He also took top honors in the broad jump with a mark of 18ft. 10½in. His 5ft. 2in. was tops in the high jump.

Other individual standouts were Stu Munro, of Calgary, and Costa Chryssanthou. Munro won the half-mile and the mile events easily with times of 2:13.2 and 4:59.2 respectively. Chryssanthou tossed the discus 101ft. 7in., and also heaved the 16-pound shot 36ft. 10in. to win these two events.

Herb McLachlin of the Phys. Ed. Dept. and Ivan Head, who managed the events, were well pleased with the turnout of competitors. Everything went according to schedule, as the events were run off without too many hitches.

Points were awarded for the first three positions. First place netted 5, second place 3, and third spot was given 1 point. Both contestants and managers were very happy about the way the whole affair turned out. Complete results will appear in Friday's Gateway.
